

ACAG COURTS TECHNOLOGY GROUP 2014 FORUM

Conference Room, Level 11, Commonwealth Law Courts
305 William Street, Melbourne

Agenda

Friday 18 July 2014
Time	Session	Facilitators
9:30 - 10:00	Welcome, apologies Welcome address by Greg Reinhardt – Executive Director, Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration An opportunity to raise issues not otherwise dealt with on the agenda for the meeting
10:00 – 11:30	Session 1 – Update from each jurisdiction Round table to identify key developments/challenges since the last meeting of the Group in 2011 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• One matter which may be discussed here is what business application developments have delivered real savings</li><li>• Digital enterprise</li><li>• Distinguishing systems and technologies</li></ul>	Phil Hocking/Lucy Barua
11:30 – 11:45	Short break
11:45 – 12:45	Session 2 – E-filing <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Session to include tasks required prior to the introduction of mandated e-filing and the creation of a full Electronic Court File. For example, how will a jurisdiction handle people who can't e-file (for whatever reason)? What technologies are being investigated to enable judges to view electronic documents on the bench? How will they handle the transition when they have hybrid files (part paper and part electronic) etc?</li><li>• Electronic Appeal Books</li></ul>	Craig Reilly/David Menzies
12:45 – 14:00	Lunch
14:00 -15:00	Session 3 –Videoconferencing This session will include a discussion of personal video applications into corporate video conferencing, integrated VC systems	Ashley Hill/Adrian Nunn
15:00 – 15:20	Afternoon tea
15:20 – 16:15	Session 4 – The future It is hoped from this session to get some feedback in relation to a larger AIJA event planned for May 2015	Greg Reinhardt/Phil Hocking
16:15 – 17:00	Family Court technology tour TBC	