

The Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration Incorporated

8th AIJA COURT LIBRARIANS' CONFERENCE

17 May 2013

*Alexander Dawson Room, Old Supreme Court Building
Corner King and Phillip Streets, Sydney*

PROGRAM

8.50-9.00am	Welcome, Opening and Introductions Professor Greg Reinhardt, Executive Director, AIJA
9.00-9.45am	Keynote Session. The Use of Technology in the Courts Speaker: Michael Green, Barrister, Founder of JADE /BarNet
9.45-10.30am	Authorised Judgments Facilitator: Petal Kinder, Court Librarian, High Court of Australia
10.30-11.00am	Morning Tea
11.00-11.45am	The Law Library of Victoria Project Facilitator: Justine Hyde, Interim Director, Law Library of Victoria Project
11.45-12.30pm	Authorised versions of Legislation – States summary Facilitator: Dorothy Shea, Librarian Supreme Court of Tasmania
12.30-1.30pm	Lunch
1.30-2.15pm	Services offered by the court libraries to legal practitioners and litigants in person. (Open or closed access?) How Far Should a Law Librarian Go? Facilitator: Vanessa Blackmore, Acting Director, Library Services, Department of Attorney-General and Justice, NSW
2.15-3.00pm	Technology versus Hard Copy. The uptake of Electronic Resources by judicial officers (iPads/Android tablets?) Facilitator: Mr Arnold Wong, Director, Shared Information Services, Department of the Attorney-General
3.00-3.30pm	Afternoon Tea
3.30-4.30pm	Updates from Jurisdictions
4.30-5pm	Demonstration of JIRS database by Judicial Commission of NSW Facilitator: Murali Sagi, Director, Information Management and Corporate Services
5pm	Conference Close