

NAJ2017 - Thursday 6 April 2017

08:00 – 09:00	Registration Blackwattle pre-function area
	Session 1, Blackwattle Room, Session Chair: Professor Gregory Reinhardt
09:00 – 09:15	Welcome to Country - Uncle Charles (Chicka) Madden, Gadigal Elder
09:15 – 09:25	Welcome & Conference Opening - Professor Gregory Reinhardt, Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration
09:25 – 10:15	Non-adversarial justice: An evolving paradigm - Professor Warren Brookbanks, Auckland University of Technology
10:15 – 11:00	Reflecting on the practice of non-adversarial justice - Chief Justice Wayne Martin, Supreme Court of Western Australia
11:00 – 11:30	Morning Tea - Blackwattle pre-function area
	Session 2, Blackwattle Room - Session Chair: Professor Arie Freiberg AM
11:30 – 13:00	Judging and the therapeutic application of the law , Professor David Wexler , University of Puerto Rico, Puerto Rico
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch - Barkers Restaurant
Concurrent Sessions	Session 3A	Session 3B	Session 3C	Session 3D
	Family violence Session Chair: Professor Gregory Reinhardt	Therapeutic jurisprudence Session Chair: Dr Astrid Birgden	Implications of non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Professor Tania Sourdin	Restorative justice Session Chair: Mr Jared Sharp
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
14:00 – 14:30	Non-adversarial approaches to domestic violence: Interrogating how theory and practice can be integrated The Hon Judge Eugene Hyman (Ret.), Superior Court of California & Professor Rachael Field , Faculty of Law Bond University Queensland	Viewing Hawaii's opportunity probation with enforcement (HOPE) program through a therapeutic jurisprudence lens Associate Professor Lorana Bartels , School of Law and Justice, University of Canberra	Judicial stress and wellbeing Carly Schrever, Judicial College of Victoria	Restorative justice conferencing giving a voice to victims of environment harm: The problem of expertise Mark Hamilton, Faculty of Law, University of New South Wales
14:30 – 15:00	Safe and supported: Developing a model for mediating family violence cases beyond family law Dr Becky Batagol, Faculty of Law, Monash University & Professor Rachael Field , Faculty of Law, Bond University Queensland	Therapeutic jurisprudence, traditional sentencing theory and behavioural science: Towards interdisciplinary coherence Michelle Edgely, School of Law, University of New England	Performing judicial authority: Engagement and ethics Emeritus Professor Kathy Mack, School of Law Flinders University & Sharyn Roach Anleu, School of Social & Policy Studies, Flinders University	A restorative city for New South Wales – could Newcastle be a model? Associate Professor John Anderson, Dr Nicola Ross, Newcastle Law School, University of Newcastle & Mary Porter AM, Former MLA, ACT Legislative Assembly and President

15:00 – 15:30	Specialist family violence courts: Developing best practice Magistrate Kate Hawkins, Lisa Eldridge & Rob Challis, Magistrates' Court of Victoria	Let's talk about compassion as the foundation of a solution focus in sentencing Dr Anthony Hopkins, Australian National University	Adversary, team player or collaborator? A human rights analysis of the right to counsel in non-adversarial justice Jennifer Black, Fitzroy Legal Service	Protecting the rights of trafficked women and children and those forced into prostitution through advocacy and non-adversarial justice Andrea Tokaji, Fighting for Justice Foundation
15:30 – 16:00	Afternoon Tea- Blackwattle pre-function area
Concurrent Sessions	Session 4A	Session 4B	Session 4C	Session 4D
	Restorative justice Session Chair: Dr Liz Bishop	Mental health courts Session Chair: Dr Liz Richardson	Appropriate dispute resolution Session Chair: Dr Becky Batagol	Non-adversarial justice – Indigenous justice Session Chair: Ms Liz Moore
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
16:00 – 16:30	Victim-centred restorative justice: Design and implementation challenges at the innovative justice interface Adjunct Professor Rob Hulls, Stan Winford & Nareeda Lewers, Centre for Innovative Justice, RMIT University	Improving retention in treatment in the South Australian Magistrates Court Treatment Intervention Court Magistrate Brett Dixon, Courts Administration Authority, South Australia, & Laura Capozzi, Offenders Aid & Rehabilitation Services Inc	Mediation and conciliation: Identifying worlds of difference Jeremy Gormly SC, Australian Dispute Resolution Advisory Council	Koori Court: 15 years young: A review of intended and unintended consequences Deputy Chief Magistrate Jelena Popovic, Magistrates' Court of Victoria
16:30 – 17:00	The collaborative problem solving project: Ten years on at the NJC Jay Jordens, Neighbourhood Justice Centre Victoria	Pilot to permanency: The ongoing journey of the WA mental health diversion court Magistrate Felicity Zempilas, Dr Adam Brett & Mark Edmunds, Magistrates' Court of Western Australia	Culture and ethics in mediation Dr Lola Akin Ojelabi, School of Law, La Trobe University	Marram-Ngala Ganbu: We are one – the Koori Family hearing day in Victoria Magistrate Kay Macpherson, Children's Court of Victoria
17:00 – 17:30		The Assessment and Referral Court (ARC) list & Borderline Personality Disorder (BPD) – are they compatible? Glenn Rutter, Glen Hardy, Magistrates' Court of Victoria & Dr Brianna Chesser, Australian Catholic University	Dispute assist – a new service initiative by the Australian Taxation Office providing tailored assistance to unrepresented individual taxpayers Cameron Grant, Australian Taxation Office	'Good kid, mad system': exploring local solutions to Indigenous young peoples' involvement with the justice system in Ceduna, South Australia Dr Anthea Krieg, Department of Communities & Social Inclusion, Community Services
17:30 – 19:30	Welcome Reception - Barkers Restaurant

NAJ2017 - Friday 7 April 2017

08:00 – 08:30	Registration - Blackwattle pre-function area
	Session 5, Blackwattle Room - Session Chair: Professor David Wexler
08:30 – 09:30	Challenges in applying non-adversarial and therapeutic justice in court systems – The Israeli example - Dr Kami Perlman, Striks School of Law, COMAS, Israel
09:30 – 10:30	Non-adversarial criminal justice in Australia: Surviving, reviving and thriving- Emeritus Professor Arie Freiberg AM, Faculty of Law, Monash University
10:30 – 11:00	Morning Tea - Blackwattle pre-function area
Concurrent Sessions	Session 6A	Session 6B	Session 6C	Session 6D
	Workshop: Solution-focused/problem-orientated courts Session Chair: Elisa Buggy	Implications of non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Justice Helen Winkelmann	Workshop: Therapeutic jurisprudence Session Chair: Associate Professor Penny Weller	Panel session: Procedural justice Session Chair: Deputy Chief Magistrate Jelena Popovic
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
11:00 – 11:30		Interdisciplinary collaborations – how legal and social services are working together Jennifer Donovan, Department of Social Work, University of Melbourne
11:30 – 12:00	Crossing the ethical line in Problem-solving courts Judge Peggy Fulton Hora, Superior Court of California (Ret.)	Navigating proceedings through the multi-door court house: Moving beyond an ‘adversarial’ or ‘non-adversarial’ characterisation Joanne Gray, Land and Environment Court of NSW	Respect, recovery and risk: exploring the opportunities and challenges of a consumer-focused hearing in the civil and forensic jurisdictions of mental health tribunals Anina Johnson, Mental Health Review Tribunal, NSW & Matthew Carroll, Victorian Mental Health Tribunal	The hidden or role of frontline court staff: Ushers, interpreters, NGO workers and others Anton Shelupanov, Justice Studio
	Session 7A	Session 7B	Session 7C	Session 7D
	Therapeutic jurisprudence Session Chair: Dr Katey Thom	Panel session: Restorative justice/community justice Session Chair: Associate Professor Sarah Murray	Panel Session:Solution-focussed/problem-orientated courts Session Chair: Judge Peggy Hora	Workshop: Lawyers and non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Ms Jane Reynolds
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
12:00 – 12:30	Envisioning Next Generation Mental Health Courts for Australia Dr Liz Richardson, Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration	Restorative justice and problem solving approaches in the community justice model Elanor Peattie, Victoria Legal Aid, Magistrate David Fanning, Neighbourhood Justice Officer, Jay Jordens, Sergeant Mark Higginbotham of Victorian Police Prosecutions & Libby Penman, Victorian Legal Aid	Family Drug Treatment Court: from establishment to practice and beyond Elisa Buggy, Judicial College of Victoria, Magistrate Greg Levine & Magistrate Kay McPherson, Magistrates’ Court of Victoria
12:30 – 13:00	Offenders: A framework for managing risk and meeting needs Dr Astrid Birgden, Deakin University & Just Forensic			The irenic lawyer Judge Joe Harman, Federal Circuit Court of Australia

		Lawyer
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch - Barkers Restaurant
Concurrent Sessions	Session 8A	Session 8B	Session 8C	Session 8D
	Restorative justice Session Chair: Justice Helen Winkelmann	Appropriate dispute resolution Session Chair: Professor Kathy Mack	Mental health courts Session Chair: Dr Liz Richardson	Family law jurisdiction Session Chair: Professor Gregory Reinhardt
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
14:00 – 14:30	The family responsibilities commission: Community led conferencing in Far North Queensland Indigenous communities – 8 years on David Glasgow AM, Family Responsibilities Commission, Queensland	ADR processes: Impact of purpose and values on ethics and justice Dr Lola Akin Ojelabi & Professor Mary Ann Noone, School of Law, Latrobe University	An examination of stakeholder attitudes and understanding of therapeutic jurisprudence in a South Australian Mental Health Court Dr Loraine Lim, University of Adelaide	Understanding the legal information experience: Results of a pilot study Professor Lisa Toohey, Newcastle Law School, University of Newcastle
14:30 – 15:00	From the despair of Don Dale to a brighter future: How restorative justice can lead system change in the Northern Territory Jared Sharp, Jesuit Social Services	Socio-legal constructions of impartiality in mediation Dr Susan Douglas, School of Law, University of the Sunshine Coast	Lessons from the coalface: Critical reflections of a lawyer working in the Victorian assessment and referral court list Tania Wolff, First Step Legal	Parents in the care jurisdiction of the Children’s Court: What can non-adversarial approaches offer? Dr Nicola Ross, Newcastle Law School, University of Newcastle
15:00 – 15:30	The opportunity of non-adversarial dialogue – A practice reflection on restorative conferencing in South Australia Grant Thomas & Winnie Chiu, Youth Court of South Australia	Barriers to ADR in the Arabian Gulf: A conversation about training, capacity, and culture Professor Paula Young, Qatar University College of Law	Developing a Mental health court in Western Australia: Dealing with competing views Magistrate Kevin Tavener, Perth Magistrates’ Court
15:30 – 16:00	Afternoon Tea - Blackwattle pre-function area
Concurrent Sessions	Session 9A	Session 9B	Session 9C	Session 9D
	Victims and non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Professor Gregory Reinhardt	Drug courts Session Chair: Dr Liz Richardson	Therapeutic jurisprudence Session Chair: Magistrate Kate Hawkins	Non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Professor Kathy Laster
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
16:00 – 16:30	Community-based, victim-centred restorative justice for sexual violence – A pilot Dr Liz Bishop, Michael Kirby Centre for Public Health and Human Rights, Monash University	The meaning and application of ‘therapeutic’ in the alcohol and other drug courts of New Zealand Dr Katey Thom, University of Auckland	Examining magistrates perceptions and use of judicial supervision Magistrate Pauline Spencer, Magistrates’ Court of Victoria & Dr Benjamin Spivak, Swinburne University	Sustainable justice: the future for courts Dr Andrew Cannon AM FAAL, PPT, Magistrates’ Court of South Australia

16:30 – 17:00	Sexual violence: Justice outside the courtroom? A New Zealand proposal Katherine M. McKenzie-Bridle, New Zealand Law Commission	Laying the foundations: embedding education into the fabric of the drug court Elisa Buggy, Judicial College of Victoria	The Court Integrated Services Program (CISP) – characteristics of successful program completion Glenn Hardy, Magistrates' Court of Victoria	Finding the right balance – The Singapore community justice and tribunal division experience District Judge Wong Li Tein, State Courts of Singapore
17:00 – 17:30		What works and why? Achieving better outcomes at the Drug Court of NSW His Honour Judge Roger Dive, Drug Court of New South Wales	The TJ journey continues: Reflecting on the therapeutic jurisdiction in Tasmania Liz Moore & Magistrate Glenn Hay, Magistrates' Court of Tasmania	Due process v Therapeutic process redux Dr Nigel Stobbs, QUT
18:30 – 23:30	Conference Dinner – Sunset Room, Luna Park - Return ferry transfers are included with your dinner ticket and will be departing from Pier 26 Darling Harbour at 18:30

NAJ2017 - Saturday 8 April 2017

08:15 – 08:45	Registration - Blackwattle pre-function area
	Session 10, Blackwattle Room - Session Chair: Dr Katey Thom
08:45 – 09:35	Restorative justice in family violence cases – where is New Zealand at? - Jon Everest, E.I Ltd – Growing out of Conflicts
09:40 – 10:30	Comparing Mental Health Courts and involuntary Civil Commitment Courts - Emeritus Professor Michael Perlin, New York School of Law
10:30 – 11:00	Morning Tea - Blackwattle pre-function area
Workshop and Panel Sessions	Session 11A	Session 11B	Session 11C
	Panel session: Therapeutic jurisprudence - Session Chair: Professor Gregory Reinhardt	Procedural justice Session Chair: Professor Warren Brookbanks	Concepts of non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Ms Jane Reynolds
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3
11:00 – 11:30		Death investigation and procedural justice: The quest for balance Professor Ian Freckelton QC, Victorian Bar
11:30 – 12:00	Judicial monitoring in Victoria Deputy Chief Magistrate Jelena Popovic, Magistrate Pauline Spencer, Magistrate Tony Parsons & Magistrate David Fanning	Procedural justice in marginal places: calling out the elephant in the room Associate Professor Penelope Weller, Graduate School of Business and Law, RMIT University	Fact finding in family law disputes Justice Hilary Hannam, Family Court of Australia

Concurrent Sessions	Session 12A	Session 12B	Session 12C	Session 12D
	Workshop: Therapeutic jurisprudence Session Chair: Dr Andrew Cannon AM FAAL	Panel Session: Non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Professor Gregory Reinhardt	Panel session: Therapeutic jurisprudence Session Chair: Ms Jo Kalowski	Restorative and community justice Session Chair: Elisa Buggy
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
12:00 – 13:00	Increasing capacity to cope: A toolkit for lawyers of clients with a disability or experience of trauma Daniel Toohey, University of Newcastle	Effective participation of vulnerable accused persons Felicity Gerry QC, Charles Darwin University	Mainstreaming TJ Judge Ian Dearden, District Court of Queensland, Chief Justice Wayne Martin, Supreme Court of Western Australia, Dr Liz Richardson, Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration & Magistrate Pauline Spencer, Magistrates' Court of Victoria	Neighbourhood justice centre – 10 years on Magistrate David Fanning, Neighborhood Justice Centre Victoria Therapeutic jurisprudence and restorative justice for family violence: expanding the options for responding effectively to violence and other abuse Dr Alikki Vernon & Dr David Moore, Victorian Association for Restorative Justice
13:00 – 14:00	Lunch - Barkers Restaurant
Concurrent Sessions	Session 13A	Session 13B	Session 13C	Session 13D
	Appropriate dispute resolution Session Chair: Professor Gregory Reinhardt	Community justice Session Chair: Deputy Chief Magistrate Jelena Popovic	Lawyers and non-adversarial justice Session Chair: Dr Nigel Stobbs	Mediation Session Chair: Dr Kami Perlman
	Blackwattle 1	Blackwattle 2	Blackwattle 3	Rose Bay Room
14:00 – 14:30	The State Courts Centre for Dispute Resolution Experience: Towards appropriate mediation styles and strategies in resolving civil, community and criminal disputes District Judge Ms Low Lih Jeng, State Courts, Singapore	A neighbourhood justice centre for Western Australia? – A feasibility study Associate Professor Sarah Murray, Law School, University of Western Australia & Suzie May, University of Western Australia	Ensuring meaningful participation in fair mental health tribunal hearings: The critical role of legal representatives Fleur Beaupert, La Trobe Law School, Latrobe University & Eleanore Fritze, Victoria Legal Aid	Emotional responses in medical negligence: Failing to provide emotional closure Tina Popa & Associate Professor Kathy Douglas, Graduate School of Business and Law, RMIT University
14:30 – 15:00	Court-referred ADR: perceptions of members of the judiciary in Australia Dr Nicky Mcwilliam, University of Technology Sydney	Registry planning process in a community justice model Damian James & Jay Jordens, Neighbourhood Justice Centre	How lawyers can capitalise on procedural justice: A framework for best practice for the non-adversarial lawyer Jennifer Hurley, Graduate School of Business and Law, RMIT University	Criminal mediation In Singapore – Tailoring the process to the parties His Honour District Judge Eugene Teo, State Courts of Singapore
15:00 – 15:25	Afternoon Tea - Blackwattle pre-function area
	Session 14, Blackwattle - Session Chair: Professor Arie Freiberg AM
15:25 – 16:15	Promoting More Therapeutic Forms of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) - Professor Tania Sourdin, University of Newcastle Law School
16:15 – 16:30	Conference closing session			