AIJA 2026-2028 Strategic Plan

AIJA
The Australasian Institute of Judicial Administration Limited

Our purpose

To promote excellence in the administration of justice in Australia, New Zealand and the surrounding region through policy, research and education.

Our values

Innovation | Forward thinking | Active collaboration

Our strategic aim

To advance knowledge and expertise in judicial and tribunal administration through:

Our strategic priorities

A thriving and engaged membership

Membership

Ensure the best experience for members and stakeholders in all their engagements with the AIJA

Improve our value to members and the community

More actively engage and collaborate with the membership and stakeholders

Proactive contributions to policy development

Policy

Help inform legislators, law reform bodies and others through research projects and education initiatives

Encourage wider debates on policy issues, drawing on the valuable knowledge and experience of members

Respond and contribute to the changing landscape within which courts and tribunals operate

Targeted and relevant research

Research

Pursue a proactive research program, collaborating where possible

Increase awareness and access to research reports, information and data

Enrich research projects by providing access to practical experience of members

Innovative educational programs

Education

Increase collaboration with judicial education providers to maximise impact

Deliver education through a variety of contemporary methods to a variety of stakeholders

Address topical issues of relevance to the justice community

Our priority areas

Indigenous justice | Technology | Vulnerable communities | Paths to excellence in judicial administration